

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow

Re-Reading Log

Name _____

Title _____

Date _____

Place a check mark next to the strategy you worked on while reading orally at home (minimum of 2).

- Re-read to figure out tricky words
- Smooth out your reading - make it sound like talk
- Think about what the character might be saying and how they would say it
- Re-read and picture what's happening on each page
- Think about what the character might be thinking on each page
- Practice reading to retell the story
- Think about the lesson you learned from the story

Compiled By: Forest Elementary School PS 71
Under the direction of Ms. Tiffany Nienow